Thomas J. Craughwell's new book, 101 Places to Pray Before You Die, would have been a fine companion in those journeys I and my pals made forty years ago, although his entry on the Basilica is about the "Old Cathedral" in St. Louis, a church I've never seen and which dates to 1764. The one my friends and I visited was dedicated in 1914 and consecrated a dozen years later.
