Fourteen-year-old Maya sneaks out in her kayak before breakfast every day to check on a family of sea otters living in nearby Riley Bay. It's hard being an animal lover in a fishing family. The animals Maya loves threaten her family's livelihood, and Maya doesn't know if she can trust her family not to hurt them. She is determined to protect the sea otters, even if it means checking on them for the rest of her life. One morning, Maya discovers she's being watched. Who is it and what are they doing? Soon Maya has to trust someone as she gets caught in a dangerous race to save the sea otters—and her family's livelihood—from poachers.

Coincidence or providence? Dr. Lucy Burke is an anesthesiologist with a family secret that threatens her career, as well as her sanity. When strange occurrences begin wreaking havoc in her life, Lucy turns to her faith, love, and the inherent power of the sister bond as she searches for answers to some frightening questions about the past. Potentially devastating events lead her to discover surprising truths and question everything she thought she knew about herself and her family.

Grief can be a frightening and debilitating factor in one's life. It is also very misunderstood, both by those enduring it and by their loved ones. This booklet is meant to shine a light of understanding and one of hope as we go through life after a loss. Written by a man who has helped many and who has been helped himself, this is not a curative. It is friendly counsel.

do list; robust ivory text paper, printed with lines; and when you need to collect other notes or scraps of paper the magnetic side flap keeps everything neat and tidy. THE ART. One of the most iconic artists of the 20th century, Frida Kahlo's bold, carefully crafted visual identity is in many respects an extension of her art, celebrating her Mexican heritage and countercultural ideals while defying traditional notions of female beauty. THE FINAL WORD. As William Morris said, Have nothing in your houses that you do not know to be useful, or believe to be beautiful.
