Never Enough by Denise Jaden
was by far the best book I have read this past year.

Her writing style was stars. Never Enough is about

The family in Never Enough was so screwed up and broken, but I could tell they all loved each other and just didn't know how to come together as a family to deal with Claire's eating disorder. Like with Losing Faith, Denise Jaden was really able to spotlight how differently people handle tough situations.
