Carolee suggests you do not jump into a reinvention without doing your homework. Research the market and the market leaders. Determine if there is a void to fill. Make a comprehensive list of your connections and network. Ask them for help, even though it is hard. "This is one of the biggest things that none of us want to do," she says.

How to Take Your First Steps Toward Reinvention * CoveyClub

It is important to phrase reinvention goals in an attainable way. Instead of saying "I want to be healthy and toned," say to yourself "I want to be the kind of person who exercises every day." Break down goals into manageable steps, and you will transform your journey from just the promise of a vague goal to a clear path to success.
