The Original #1 Mad Libs :
Roger Price : 9780843100556 Mad Libs was invented in 1953 by Leonard Stern and Roger Price. Stern and Price co-created the game, but could not agree on a name for their invention. No name was chosen until five years later (1958), when Stern and Price were eating Eggs Benedict at a restaurant in New York City.

We have a stash of different Mad Libs pads in the car, they are a huge hit with my 7-12 year old crowd and a nice alternative to plugging in a movie. I like that they are learning about nouns, adjectives and verbs while flexing their creative muscles and don't even know it!

The idea is simple. Someone asks for a part of speech: a verb, a noun, an adjective, or an adverb. We've included definitions and examples of the parts of speech in case you've forgotten. Players call out their ideas to fill in the blanks and in the end, you have a story reeling from one silly sentence to another until nothing makes sense.
