The Wooster Group work book (Book, 2007) [WorldCat.org]

Wooster Group director Elizabeth LeCompte describes how the framing device applied to Chekhov's Three Sisters in Brace Up! and Fish Story drew on a documentary about an itinerant troupe of traditional Japanese geinin performers reduced to putting on ropery productions for tourists. The device echoed Donna Sierra and the del Fuegos dance troupe in LSD and the vagabond magicians in Frank Dell's ...

The Wooster Group owns and operates it as a shareholder in the Grand Street Artists Co-op, which was originally established as part of the Fluxus art movement in the 1960s. Before the formation of The Wooster Group, The Performance Group, under the direction of Richard Schechner, developed and produced work at the Garage.

History | THE WOOSTER GROUP

Forming the heart of The Wooster Group's website, these films act as windows into every nook and cranny of the company's day-to-day life, as well as a marketing tool when the need arises. A patchwork of content from fragments of rehearsal, a chat with an intern, abstract shots of lighting desks or audience reactions, each video gives the viewer an ever growing history of shared experiences ...
