Undress Me in the Temple of Heaven is a cautionary tale of how not all

backpacking trips end

up as something you want to tell all your friends about when you get back home.

Taking place in the mid 1980's on the
cusp of mainland
China opening up to independent travel, Gilman writes of the
naivety of youth as she and one of her friends from University head out
on a one-year trip
round the world.
